

Professional Development/Training Registration Course Documents Video Transcription

If there are course documents associated with the course which the Presenter has made available within SharePoint those will appear by choosing Course Documents along the left navigation. Keep in mind that your Presenter may simply handout training materials in an on-site course or store course materials for you in a Blackboard course if the course is hybrid or online only.